Theme of the Activity:	Knowing Europe: Renaissance & Enlightenment to Contemporary Trends & Challenges
Activity Date(s):	18 th Feb. 2023 & 25 th Feb. 2023	No. of Participants:	80
Brief Description of the Activity:
The Directorate of International Affairs of Guru Gobind Singh Indraprastha University organized online sessions on the theme "European Union Structures and Functioning" and "The European Union as a Unique Actor in International Relations" as a part of the G20 activities. The online sessions are a segment of the certificate course series, "Knowing Europe: Renaissance & Enlightenment to Contemporary Trends and Challenges". The coordinators of this course are Prof. Vijita Aggarwal (Director, International Affairs, GGSIPU) and Dr. Sheetal Sharma (Centre for European Studies, Jawaharlal Nehru University) & the Convener is Dr. Anjali Shokeen (Associate Director, International Affairs, GGSIPU). The resource person Prof. Klaus Welle discussed how India and the European Union have many similarities, including a diversity of languages. He further explained how India is more federal than people believe and how Europe is more centralised than people believe. In the next session, Prof. Harsh V. Pant discussed that the European Union matters with the principle that anarchy plays a vital role by knowing domestic politics and international politics which leads to power maximization are the first thing to consider. The participation in the course is overwhelming as the students and the faculty have taken a keen interest in a very progressive way.
