Webinar on

Changing Paradigms of International Commercial Law in the New Global Order

The University School of Law and Legal Studies, is delighted to share the commencement of the International Economic Law & International Relations Cell (IEL&IRC). This Cell has been established with the objective of promoting academic and scholarly discussions on the emerging areas of International Economic Law and International Relations. It also aims to generate interests on the issues of global economic matters and international diplomacy among the students.

The IEL&IRC is organizing its inaugural webinar on the subject titled "Changing Paradigms of International Commercial Law in the New Global Order".

About the Speaker

Prof. (Retd.) Abhijit Das is an expert in international trade and WTO issues. He has recently retired as the Head of the Centre for WTO Studies, Indian Institute of foreign Trade, New Delhi. He has more than two decades of experience in international trade in various capacities, including five years in the Government of India. He has participated directly in many multilateral and bilateral trade negotiations, including the Doha Round at the WTO and OECD Steel Subsidy negotiations. He drafted more than 50 negotiating submissions on behalf of India to the WTO on different issues including Agreement on Agriculture, Subsidies Agreement, Anti-Dumping Agreement, Fisheries Subsidies and the Dispute Settlement Understanding. He worked in UNCTAD India Programme during 2005-10 and headed this prestigious UN project for three years.
