NOTICE

Debate Competition & Panel Discussion(ADR Cell ,USLLS)

The Alternative Dispute Resolution Cell is Organizing two days events namely as Debate and Panel discussion on 20th and 21st May, the details of the events are mentioned below: -

1. Debate Competition “Vimarsh” (20th May,2021 from 10.00 am onwards in C-412)

This is an initiative to bring together the best pieces of ideas by college students to invoke thought provoking discourse on issues of importance, instilling a greater understanding of such a multi-faceted modern world.

Topic- “Judicial intervention in the field of Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) - a boon or a bane?”

2. Panel Discussion [21st May,2022 (Saturday) from 10.30 am onwards in C -413]

ODR is often believed as the online equivalent of ADR. But ODR is much more than e-ADR. Under ODR, technology comes in as a 'fourth party' and plays a vital role in dispute resolution by facilitating document storage, scheduling meetings, and much more. With the advent of the internet, growth in the commercial sector, the increasing pace of globalization, and, the technological advancement in the last three decades, the nature of disputes also has undergone some major transformations.

Topic- “Future of Online Dispute Resolution in the Indian Landscape”

Distinguished Speakers of the panel discussion

1. Devashish Bharuka (Advocate-On-Record, Supreme Court of India)

2. Shruti Sabharwal (Partner, Disputes Resolution Team, Shardul Amarchand Mangaldas)

3. Iram Majid (Director, Indian Institute of Arbitration and Mediation)

All USS students and faculty members are invite to grace the event on both days.
