NOTICE

ONE DAY WORKSHOP ON “UNDERSTANDING LGBTQIA+ ISSUES”

University School of Law & Legal Studies (USLLS) is going to organize a one day workshop on “Understanding LGBTQIA+ Issues”. The workshop shall include a 2 hour interaction with the keynote speaker Ms. Anjali Gopalan on the issues faced by LGBTQIA+ community and their rights. The community faces a lot of discrimination in various aspects of their lives, such as workplace, housing, healthcare among others. This can make it difficult for them to live openly and safely. The purpose of this event is to spread awareness and sensitize students about the issues faced by and the rights of the community members.

Ms. Anjali Gopalan is the Founder and Executive Director of Naz Foundation (India) Trust. She is an eminent Indian Social and Human Rights Activist who strongly advocates for sexual health and rights of the LGBTQIA+ community. She spearheaded the seventeen year old legal battle against section 377 of Indian Penal Code (IPC). It will not be wrong to mention that her years of experience and engagement in this area would be immensely beneficial.

The primary target beneficiary group for the workshop will be the students of University School of Law & Legal Studies (USLLS), University School of Humanities (USHSS) and University School of Liberal Arts (USLA). All interested students and faculty members are requested to join and grace the occasion.
