TCS iON Employability Readiness Program

1. The Employment Readiness Program has been introduced to offer relevant learning & preparation products so that students can :
  - identify their strengths
  - skill themselves in needed areas, and
  - test their preparedness for corporate jobs & internships
2. It is an online, free-of-cost, 15-day preparatory course which has been created to give students a self-paced and non-sequential learning environment. The sessions are NOT live-sessions.
3. It covers basic interpersonal skills, non-verbal, verbal and written communication, interview attending skills and business & social etiquette, apart from domain knowledge.
4. We recommend that all students, right from first year batches to final year batches, register for this program

Please refer to the attached document for more information.

LAST DATE FOR REGISTRATION IS 13th August 2024.
