It has been observed that some officials of the University have been interacting with the media persons without taking any prior approval of the Competent Authority. This is a serious violation of the CCS (CCA) Rules 1965 and Ordinance 32 & 33 of the University.

All employees of the University are advised not to interact with the media persons without obtaining approval of the Competent Authority. The PRO of the University is the only authorized person to interact with the media persons. Any violation of these instructions would be taken seriously and disciplinary action may be initiated as per Rules.
