Subject: Training Programme on URKUND Anti Plagiarism Software.

GGSSIP University has implemented a Regulation to promote healthy research culture and to prevent plagiarism since 2013. UIRC has been provided access to URKUND Anti Plagiarism Software from 2015 by Shodhganga (MHRD), INFLIBNET Center for the benefit of GGSIP University teachers, researchers and students.

Researcher has to submit the document intended for Similarity Analysis, by e-mail as attachment along with contact details to apsingh95.ggsiu@analysis.urkund.com E-mail with Similarity Analysis web link is forwarded to researcher's e-mail address.

Need of this training programme has been felt due to increasing use of URKUND Anti Plagiarism Software in GGSIP University in past 03 years. This training provides opportunity to discover features and functionality of the tool. Through this training, faculty members, research scholars and students can improve their research and writing skills and ensure that their intellectual property is not plagiarized.

To familiarize our users, UIRC is organizing web training programme on Anti Plagiarism Services and URKUND on 18 May 2018, Friday in Computer Laboratory of University Information Resource Center (UIRC) during 03:00 - 04:00 PM. Interested Research Scholars and Faculty Members of USSs are requested to attend the programme.
